WHAT'S IT ABOUT?

COMMANDER FALCONER IS MISSING THE WAR

Following years on the front line of battle on Mars, disgraced soldier Commander Falconer is posted to the ice plains of Pluto to oversee a small research team

Battle-scarred and bewildered, Falconer only wants to return to the comfort of combat. Making her life difficult for her are anxious thrill-seeker Christy, enigmatic and prodigious Burney, and impulsive wrecking-ball (and resident cyborg) Lowell.

Billions of miles from civilisation, and on the edge of infinity, the crew face impossible threats, meet unspeakable villains and generally get on each others' nerves.

Oh, and that war may be closer than Falconer thinks.

"I COULDN'T ASK FOR A BETTER CREW.

I PUT IN A REQUEST, BUT HEADQUARTERS REFUSED."
